Opera House.

"The Lighthouse Tragedy," a comedy-drama, was presented by the Tempest Dramatic Company at the Opera House last night before a small-sized audience. The drama was the best piece of the week and was presented in a manner creditable to any company. The reading of the lines of the play was first-class and without a pause. This company is one of the best that has ever played here, and deserves good patronage. The specialty, "The Fiftieth Rehearsal," by H. L. Sperry and Elizabeth Ray, was heartily enjoyed. Tonight the company will present the military comedy-drama, "Red, White and Blue," a play dealing with the Spanish-American war. As will be seen by the advertisement elsewhere, the lower floor, for tonight only, will be 20c, reserved seats to be sold first. Tomorrow night will be "amateur night"; three prizes to be given to the best amateur act. The entries in the contest will close at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

Another Cold Wave.

The temperature yesterday morning became mild, but as noon approached the northwest wind blew strong and cold and by night the blasts were sharp and the flares roared at short intervals. The mercury kept sinking until the cold became so pronounced that the streets were almost deserted. The wind, however, had diminished considerably before midnight, but the cold was as intense as ever, and the mercury at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 2°. It was, however, several degrees lower during the night. Conditions became pleasant later in the day. The weather forecaster says another frigid wave is in transit. At 3 o'clock this evening the mercury stood at 27°.

Death of Mr. Weadon.

Mr. Walker G. Weadon, a well-known and esteemed citizen, died at his home on Prince street, between Henry and Fayette, early last night. The deceased was in his 35th year. He leaves a widow and two children. Mr. Weadon had been a sufferer from a pulmonary complaint for a long time. He was a son of the late F. M. Weadon, and was an upholsterer by trade. In by-gone days he was an employee in the furniture factory of the late James Green. The deceased was a member of the M. E. Church South and from his boyhood days an active member of the old Hydraulion Fire Company.

New Choir.

The choir of the Jewish Synagogue has recently been reorganized and augmented by several new singers, and, under the able direction of Mrs. Charles G. Lennon, will no doubt in a short time be one of the leading musical organizations of its kind in the city. The personnel of the choir is as follows: Soprano, Miss Florence Eichberg; Mrs. Herman Friedlander and Mrs. Frank Blondheim; alto, Mrs. Mary Grimes and Miss Ethel Grimes; tenor, Mr. Frank Boyer; basso, Mr. Wm. L. Hoy; organist and director, Mrs. Charles G. Lennon.

Disorderly Washingtonians.

Charles Bradley, John F. Sullivan, Joseph Nail, Frank Murtell, Lillian Sour, Lillian Johnson and Virginia Bain were turned over to Officers Roberts and Allen by Conductor Kerriek, of the electric railway, late yesterday afternoon, charged with disorderly and unseemly conduct on a south bound train. The accused were later brought before Justice Caton who collected $35 from the party in fines. Murtell seemed to be the treasurer of the group, as he produced the wherewithal. The men and women live in Washington.

Police Court.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. A colored boy named Frank Doman was arrested yesterday by Officers Allen and Beach charged with having a pistol in his possession. The boy was attempting to sell the weapon, which was unloaded, to a second-hand dealer. He stated that he purchased the pistol last Christmas. He was released to appear this morning and when Justice Caton heard his statement he released him.

The River.

The ice in the river was rendered more solid last night by the cold wave, and early this morning the track made by steamers yesterday had frozen firm enough to bear a man's weight. The tugboat Major Brewerton started out between 8 and 9 o'clock to break a track to Shepherd's, but the work proved very slow and tedious. The Brewerton forged ahead a short distance, when she was brought to a complete standstill. She backed about half a square and ran against the solid cakes with all her power. A grating and roaring sound followed, and after having forged ahead a few yards the tugboat was again brought to a full stop. This performance was repeated over and over again for hours.

The steamer Washington from Norfolk had not arrived by 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A dispatch from Warsaw, Westmoreland county, says. The steamer Anne Arundel, which left Baltimore Tuesday at 7 a. m., reached Kinsale last night after a rough voyage. The steamer Middlesex, which reached Welford yesterday afternoon, met with alike experience. Tappanahock could not be reached, owing to heavy ice. It is doubtful if either steamer will be able to proceed farther till the weather moderates.

Quarterly Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Washington street, M. E. Church South was held last night. It was the last official meeting and was presided over by Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffy, whose term expires by limitation at the Baltimore Conference which meets in Winchester, March 22. A resolution of confidence and vote of thanks for Dr. Duffy was passed. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent of Washington street Sunday School, James B. Alexander; Superintendent of Village Chapel, F. J. Pollard; Stewards, Henry K. Field, J. E. Alexander, G. W. Keys, E. C. Graham, W. W. Sherman, Jno. P. Robinson, J. G. Graham, J. G. Cockey, T. H. Netherland, J. T. Wilkins, S. E. Lindsey, F. J. Pollard, W. G. Plaskett, J. F. Myers, Geo. E. Warfield, J. B. Watkins, V. T. Wilkins, Alvin Powell, C. E. Outcalt and Samuel R. Catta.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Judge Barley had before him this morning the habeas corpus case of Harvey L. Allen, who sued his wife for the possession of his two-year old daughter, now in custody of the child's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Dean. Mr. and Mrs. Allen separated some time since. After hearing evidence in the case, Judge Barley declined to give the child to its father but remanded it to the custody of its mother and grandmother, granting the father the privilege, however, of seeing his child during any reasonable hours.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis James Pollard have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Wallace Pollard, and Dr. Arthur Barton Crane of Washington. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock Tuesday, February 23, in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Mrs. Frank G. Bell, of Savannah, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lambert.

Mrs. Park Agnew, who has been quite ill for some time, continues to improve.

Death of Mr. Pack.

Mrs. M. E. Gilmore, of this city, received a telegram announcing the death of her son-in-law, Mr. John H. Pack, which occurred at an early hour this morning at his home in Roanoke, Va. Mrs. Gilmore left immediately for that place.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, will conduct the prayer meeting tonight at the Children's Home.

People living in the vicinity of the Southern Railway depot are again complaining of excessive whistle blowing in the night time.

The beautiful white silk banner, made by Mrs. L. W. Huffman for the W. C. T. U., was sent to this office this morning for exhibition and was greatly admired by all who saw it.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate yesterday continued, but did not conclude, consideration of the bill making appropriations for the support of the government of the District of Columbia. While the bill was before the Senate, Mr. Elkins took exception to an item for the construction of a local bridge as in the interest of speculators, and made a general plea for economy in the matter of appropriations. The Senate impeachment trial held the attention of the Senate for two hours.

The question of what the policy of the government should be with respect to the upbuilding of the navy was again thrashed out in the House during the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, the debate developing much opposition to the proposed addition of two battleships to the naval establishment. As on Tuesday, the defense of the Philippines played an important part in the discussion, while the events of the war in the far East from a naval point of view were given prominence by the advocates of an increased navy.

Interchange of Local and Commutation Tickets between the R. F. & W. and Washington-Southern Railway and Southern Railway between Alexandria and Washington.

Beginning next Sunday, February 13th, an arrangement has been made whereby local tickets between Washington and Alexandria and all classes of commutation tickets between same points will be good on any of the trains of the Southern Railway carrying coaches and on any of the trains of the Washington-Southern Railway carrying coaches, tickets being interchangeable on either line as above.

MASONIC.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of Virginia is in session in Richmond. As stated yesterday in the reports of the grand officers were presented Tuesday evening. These reports, which were the subjects of committee attention yesterday, show that Masonry was never more prosperous in old Virginia than now. Eleven new lodges are now working under dispensation, and all of them, having fulfilled the requirements, are applicants for charters at this session. The increase in membership for the past year has been 879 in the State. The first business of yesterday evening's session was the election of officers for the ensuing year, and it being what the politicians would call an "off-year," the old officers were re-elected as follows:

Grand Master, Thomas N. Davis of Lynchburg; Deputy Grand Master, Kosciuszko Kemper, of Alexandria; Grand Senior Warden, S. J. Quinn, of Fredericksburg; Grand Junior Warden, D. J. W. Eggleston, of Richmond; Grand Treasurer, J. Fred Pleasant, of Richmond; Grand Secretary, George W. Carrington, of Richmond; Grand Senior Deacon John W. Kellam, of Accomac county; Grand Junior Deacon, W. D. McChesny, of Staunton.

The committee on appropriations recommended that the State be divided into six districts instead of four, as now, and the number of lecturers, in addition to the grand lecturer, be increased to six. The finance committee having already arranged for the increased expense, the recommendation of the committee was adopted.

A gavel, made from wood of the old Virginia State Capitol, was given the lodge by the register of the land office, and presented through Pastmaster R. T. W. Duke.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Police and City Fathers.

In the report of the proceedings of Council as published in last night's Gazette, I see that one of our honorable "City Fathers" felt called upon to make a few remarks concerning the consistent absence of a policeman when he is wanted. Perhaps this is the case when that "Father" wishes to have the law enforced against the electric railway or some individual who is guilty of the flagrant violation of a penal statute. But would his remarks have been the same if one of those habitually scarce gentlemen with brass buttons had hailed that "City Father" into the Police Court for allowing two inches of ice to remain for three weeks upon the Columbus street sidewalk adjoining his store? The ice has been there, is there, and persistently refuses to vacate of its own accord. Methinks he would have introduced an ordinance to reduce the force. It is the old, old story—a policeman will be damned if he does, and be damned if he don't!

A LONELY FRIEND TO THE FORCE.

Oh, my! One of our councilmen observes a similarity in the loitering gait of a policeman and the proud strut of a turkey. Remarkable indeed! How can he notice this resemblance when the consensus of opinion is that our policemen never walk around? Do you know, sir, that we have but one officer for each ward, whose duty is to spread himself simultaneously over seventy blocks, or one hundred and forty acres of municipal territory? I would like to hear this city governor charge an officer as to his duties. It would be something on this order: "Mr. Officer, your beat comprises the territory west of Washington street and south of King street, only sixty blocks. Therein you must keep perfect order. Much complaint has arisen from rowdiness attendant upon the opening and closing of the public schools. You must suppress this—be near the building at all times. Do not go from King street, except on rare occasions as the electric railway must always be considered a suspicious character and closely watched for violations of the law. Meet all trains at the Southern depot—be there at their coming and going. Also pay close attention to the localities around Stone Bridge—much disorder there. By no means neglect the freight yards for a moment—stop that thieving. Keep an eye on the several gambling dens and carefully prepare for raids. Listen attentively to complaints of citizens, though the do not stay in one place more than five minutes. See that there is no disorder in barrooms, but don't enter, for temptation lurks therein. These are a few of your duties—only a few. And discharge awaits those who attempt to warm themselves by any fire. These duties faithfully performed every other eight-hours, night and day, hot and cold, will entitle you to fifty dollars per month! Be ye faithful! POLICEMAN'S FRIEND.

[Are there really two friends of the police?]

Fiendish Suffering

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Buckle's Arnica Salve for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." It soothes and heals cuts, burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leitch & Sons' drug store; guaranteed.

Nothing Equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Dr. P. B. Spears, of Pinchard, Ala., has become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and uses it in his own family and in his practice. He says: "It beats any preparation I have ever seen for all bowel complaints, I do not think of recommending any other, and also use it with my own children." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Sunshine of Spring.

The Salve that cures without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cuts, Burns, Boils, Bruises and piles disappear before the use of this Salve as snow before the sunshine of spring. Miss H. M. Middleton, Thebes, Ill., says: "I was seriously injured by a fall. I used DeWitt's Salve and it cured me in less than a week." Get the genuine. Sold by all druggists.
